

BGS Old Boys' Association Membership Application Form

The objectives of the Old Boys' Association are to encourage and support sport and recreational activities for members, provide social media platforms for use by sub-sections, the school and the development office providing news and promoting events and activities and to organise annual Founders' Day dinners in Bury and London. Membership is open to all Old Boys of the School and costs £25.00 for Life Membership.

The Association has sub-sections including Football, Golf, Cricket & Bridge. An Annual Newsletter is published in March, which gives details on the success of sports teams, news of Old Boys, School news etc. Members can also access & contact the Old Boys Association via FACEBOOK.

For further details of all the aforementioned activities please visit the Old Boys' page on the School website: www.burygrammar.com/old-boys-association
